Pulitzer Prize Play Is Chosen By Dr. Fulsom for March 16-17

"The Glass Menagerie," a memory play by Tennessee Williams, will be presented by the speech and dramatics department in the auditorium on March 16 and 17th. It will be directed by Dr. Ralph E. Fulsom, chairman of the department.

Rolande Thompson, freshman, Ravenwood, will play the part of Amanda Wingfield, the mother. Amanda, clinging to the past, lives in mental confusion. She is a combination of endurance, heroism, and foolishness, and is sometimes a bit cruel.

Tom Wingfield, son of Amanda, will be portrayed by John Lee Thompson, junior, Maryville. He is narrator of the play and has a part time job in a warehouse. To escape from a trap, Tom is somewhat ruthless.

The role of the crippled daughter, Laura Wingfield, will be played by Kay Ferguson, freshman, Hamburg, Iowa. An illness from childhood has left one of Laura's legs shorter than the other. Laura is like a piece of her own glass collection, too fragile to move from the shelf.

This play has received the Pulitzer Prize for Drama and the Drama Critics Award.

A critic in the Herald Tribune reported this play as "a newcomer to be hailed with joy from end to end."

"Something of which to be genuinely proud . . . an absorbing story, penned with warmth and heart and imagination . . . 'sheer magic' is the comment made by another publication's critic.

Entertain at Ravenwood

On Sunday, February 14, a group of girls from Residence Hall visited the Ravenwood Rest Home. They presented a short program of group singing and a humorous reading by Rosalie Hamilton. Gifts of chocolate hearts and valentine cookies were given to the residents.

The group included Bettebelle Pitts, Rolande Thompson, Jeanne Ackley, Rosalie Hamilton, Mary Shipton, and Jeanne Goodson. They were accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Luer, director of Residence Hall.

Miss Chloe Millikan Is on Speaking Tour

Miss Chloe Millikan, chairman of the department of early childhood education at Northwest Missouri State College, is absent from her duties this week while she is on a speaking tour for the American Association of University Women.

President of the Missouri division of A.A.U.W., Miss Millikan left Sunday and will resume her work on the campus Monday. Her first speaking engagement was at a George Washington dinner at El Dorado Springs Monday evening.

Yesterday and today she was a guest of Dr. Blanche Dow, president of Cottey College, at Nevada. She addressed both the Nevada branch and the students at the college. Miss Millikan will also be a guest speaker at meetings in Independence, St. Charles and St. Louis.

Senate Appoints Two

Serves as Consultant
Dr. W. A. Brandenburg served as a consultant in the area of secondary education at the annual Atchison County Teachers Meeting at Rock Port, February 15.

Returns From Chicago

President J. W. Jones returned last week from the annual meeting of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education which was held in Chicago. From Monday until Wednesday, he attended meetings of the Studies and Standards Committee of A. A. C. T. E. of which he is a member.

Students and Faculty Have Administrators Of District as Guests

Superintendents, principals, or counselors of students now attending the College were visitors on campus for the second annual Counselor's Day, Monday afternoon, February 15.

Counselors and their former students met at 1 p.m. in the auditorium for a general get-together and announcement of the afternoon's activities. These activities included visits with the students, their classes and their teachers.

At 5 p.m., a coffee hour was given in the Union Lounge, which enabled the counselors to discuss mutual problems with faculty members. In the evening the counselors were guests at the Maryville-St. Benedict's basketball game.

Students and the schools they represent who were hosts Counselor's Day are as follows:

President Jones Sets Forth Plans for Coordinating Board

Dr. J. W. Jones, president of Northwest Missouri State College, February 16 appeared before the Missouri "Little Hoover" commission in Jefferson City and presented a plan to coordinate the policies of the five state colleges.

Dr. Jones' proposal was that a central coordinating board be set up to set policies for all the state colleges and their teacher training programs.

This board, composed of five or ten members appointed by the governor, would establish uniform policies to guide the existing boards of regents which now govern the schools. It would set up a consolidated budget, allocating part of available funds to each school, establish uniform salary scales and fees and coordinate the building

Religious Week Features "Faith For World Peace"

The Sixteenth Annual Religious Emphasis Week conducted at the College from February 7-11 was heralded as one of the most successful ever presented.

This year's timely theme, "Religious Faith for World Peace" was a fresh approach which struck home to most students.

Dr. Paul T. Losh, assistant professor of religious education, Central Baptist Theological Seminary, Kansas City, Kansas, was the principal speaker during the week.

At the opening assembly, Dr. Losh conveyed the idea that the pattern of life in relationship to God required effort and price on the part of the individual. He spoke of the necessity of constant observation for a maturing concept and ultimate purpose of life.

Other guest speakers were Mr. Harold Keubler, Associate Secretary of the National Council of YMCA, and the Rev. Andrew Kunkel, O.S.B., superintendent of high school and junior college, Conception Abbey.

Maryville ministers participating were the Rev. Monk Bryan, First Methodist Church; the Rev. Charles Jennings, Church of the Nazarene; the Rev. D. Franklin Kohl, First Christian Church; the Rev. Harold Miller, First Methodist Church; the Rev. David H. Thomas, Jr., First Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Virgil L. Vaughn, First Baptist Church.

The American Association of University Professors sponsored in connection with Religious Emphasis Week a dinner in the Lake View Room of the Student Union on February 9.

Featured guests were the various ministers who were here during the inspirational week. Dr. Losh gave the address.

Mr. Smay Is Conductor Of Bands at Festival

Mr. John L. Smay, College band director, was guest conductor at a band festival in Falls City, Nebraska, Saturday, February 20.

Among the bands participating were Falls City, Nebraska City, Paroness City, Auburn, and Tecumseh, Nebraska.

Mr. Smay's activities consisted of acting as a critic for soloists, small groups, and bands. The festival closed with a performance of the named bands directed by Mr. Smay.

* Highlighting the Annual Tower Dance to be held in the lounge of the Union Building, Saturday night, February 27, will be the coronation of the 1954 Tower royalty.

According to a recent announcement by Violet Casey, chairman, voting in both the nomination and the final election will be open to every member of the student body instead of only those attending the dance. Final election will be held Thursday, February 25, in the Administration building.

Cyril Dougherty, yearbook editor, will crown the royal couple. At this time Mr. Dougherty will also reveal the person to whom the 1954 yearbook is to be dedicated.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Corky Elliot and his orchestra.

Admission price for this year's formal will be $1.50.

Critic Will Speak At Next Assembly

John Beaufort, journalist for the Christian Science Monitor, will speak to the Northwest Missouri State College students and faculty at an assembly, March 5, and will spend the day on campus.

Mr. Beaufort will discuss "The Play and You" and the New York theatrical scene since the end of World War II, including the latest plays.

For more than twenty years he has filled a wide variety of assignments with the Monitor. He has been a war and foreign correspondent, bureau chief, arts and magazine editor, but has always returned to writing about the theater.

openings in the early thirties. He liked to cover plays, and after a time, writing about drama and films became his regular job. In 1939, the Monitor turned him loose to write about Broadway.

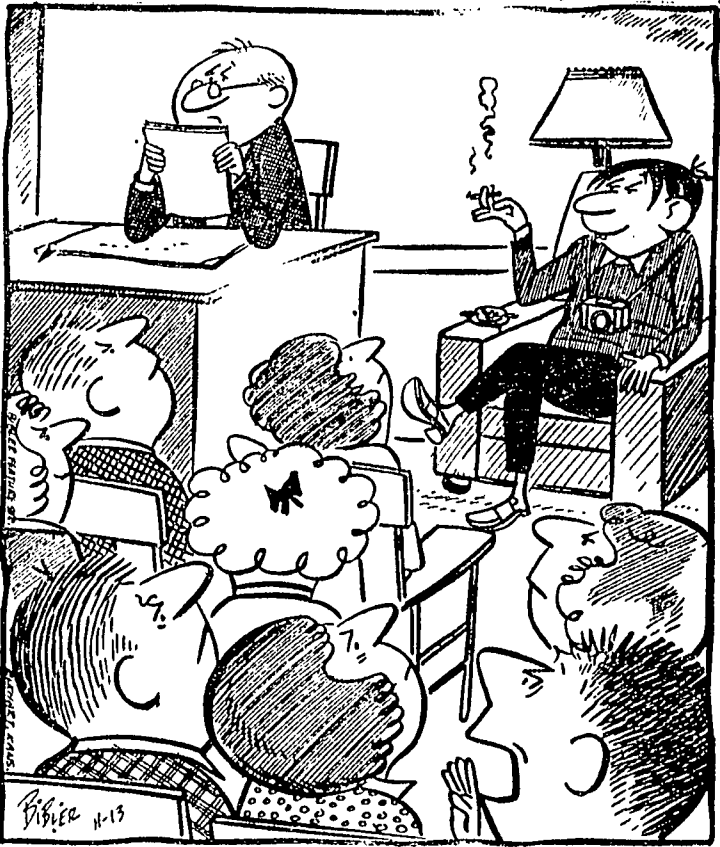

He has written a play but feels he is a good enough critic to recognize that it is not a good enough play.

He hopes some day to make a study of the developing relationship between history and the theater. This subject, he admits, is large and quite "future-ish."

A. C. E.

Card games provided a variety of entertainment, and group singing was enjoyed by all. Janet McClard consented to sing a solo entitled "Yes."

Art Club

Plans for the "Peter Pan" puppet show are well underway. The script was read to the Art Club and a few changes were discussed. The $84 question of the evening was how to sew on Peter Pan's shadow.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Home Managers

Jan. 26 Five girls moved into the Home Management House for the second semester. They are Marilyn Gilliland, Sue Hood, Joan Kowitz, Irene Schmitz, and Lucille Steinhauser. Miss Louise Johnson, supervising teacher at Horace Mann, is the home management supervisor this semester.

Feb. 2 Sue Hood was the first hostess. She invited Bonnie Campbell and Mary Shipton to have dinner that evening.

Feb. 9 Mrs. Sara Fisher, Miss Rachel Taul, Mr. Herbert Dieterich, and Dr. Leon Miller came to luncheon. Lucille Steinhauser was hostess.

Feb. 15 Joan Kowitz left for a week's visit at home in Helena. She had become ill with the chicken pox.

Feb. 15. Faculty coffee hour after the basketball game.

Feb. 20 President and Mrs. J. W. Jones and Dr. June Cozine were dinner guests at the Home Management House. The hostess was Irene Schmitz.

Feb. 26 Will entertain Dean and Mrs. Brandenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, and Miss Cook at dinner.

Time Is Capital; Invest Wisely

As we begin the second semester, it is a good time to consider seriously the way in which we are using our time.

Time used and time unused both have results. Used minutes will some day be added up and will show their positive results just as unused minutes will show their negative results. This fact applies to material results as well as spiritual outcome. Each thought takes a second—occupies a definite amount of time. The sum of these thoughts make one's life; therefore, one's thoughts strongly affect his future—his success or his defeat.

Some day the test will come when one sees his achievements added up to accomplish or fail in a purpose he desires and his own used and unused seconds fight for or against him. He has determined his own victory or his defeat.

The test may be a physical one. If the laws of hygiene and health have been disregarded, one must pay the price, for health cannot be acquired in a moment of crisis.

The test may come in sorrow, discouragement, or suffering that demands the strength of a great faith.

It may be that the test will come in the material work-a-day world, where one's mentality will have to battle brilliant minds. If the mind has been carefully trained in good habits of thinking quickly and clearly, it will be prepared.

Every second, every thought, every word, every action, every bit of knowledge picked up on life's way—even though entirely forgotten—unites—the positive with the affirmative side, the negative with the other side. One willfully make his own Heaven or Hell through preparedness or through indifference.

Am I investing my time wisely?

Vote Tomorrow!

Tower King and Queen election will be held tomorrow; the winning candidates will be announced at the Tower dance to be held Saturday, February 27.

A voting booth will be set up on the first floor of the Administration building, and voting will be allowed from 8 to 12 a. m., and from 1 to 4 p. m. tomorrow.

For Tower King:

Bill Schultz
John Barrett

For Tower Queen:

Ethel Carlson
Martha Newman
Jean Ann Feurt
BetteBelle Pitts.

Campaign managers are required to submit a list of campaign expenses to Stan Ogden not later than 4 p. m., Friday, February 26. Campaign expenses are not to exceed $15.

Residence Hall

Residence Hall girls enjoyed a valentine party after hours, Tuesday night, February 16. Under the direction of Bonnie Campbell, chairman of the social committee, girls from second floor gave an amusing program.

Gerry Sickles led the group in singing "Heart of My Heart." Sue Wright and Sally Jackson gave a modern day version of the balcony scene from Romeo and Juliet. Barbara Don Tyer and Helen Bills presented a vaudeville song and dance act. The program closed with group singing.

Refreshments of ice cream bars were served.

Dr. W. A. Brandenburg, dean of faculty, gave an address to the Parent Teacher Association at Quitman, February 17.

Inquiring Reporter

Is the ten o'clock hour on Wednesday the best time to have assemblies?

Barbara Boyd: "Yes, it is the best hour and day because it is in the middle of the week and it breaks the monotony."

Betty Rion: "I think one o'clock would be a better time because everyone has just eaten; so they won't skip for coffee. They will also have their mail by that time and won't skip assemblies just because they are anxious to see if they got any letters."

Bill Batton: "Yes, I am used to going at that time now. I don't have any classes then."

Warren Brown: "I would like eight o'clock best of all."

Elaine Nelson: "Matinees at 2:30 p.m. would be pretty good as you could miss two classes instead of one."

Ruth Crane: "I think that one o'clock would be a lot better. I have to work at 10."

Erma Grabill: "I'd rather have them at one o'clock because I do not have any classes until 11 and I like to sleep late."

Jo Ellen Anderson: "I think it is all right as it is. It would interfere with other things at another hour, and it breaks the monotony."

Joyce Brown: "Yes, because it doesn't conflict with anything."

Dr. Glen J. Hoffman of the humanities department spoke to the Kiwanis club at Fairfax, February 16. Dr. Hoffman, who returned from a tour of Europe late last summer, spoke principally on Belgium.

THE STROLLER

The springtime cometh with only the married men on the wrong end of the receiving line. It seems that many of our veterans are quite adept at hanging up the weekly wash—suffer the connubial consequences.

Lunch-line-crashers are creating real bedlam in the cafeteria. This is a smooth operating little group that deals in underhand tactics—they have friends. After an hour of standing in line, that roast-beef sandwich looks like a $9.00 steak at the Ritz, and then along comes a sly ole linebuster and you're left holding the short end of a powered donut. Your dream world shatters while Young Fireball gorges himself. Is there no justice?

A new dance band on campus, "The Esquire Boys," is soon to make its debut. This is a cosmopolitan little bunch that is quite hep on the downbeat. You may hear a terrific tango, a weird waltz or a dreamy drag—you name it, and they literally go wild.

Television at the Union seems to be taking top billing for leisure time activity. The "Eddie Fisher Show" is currently tops in popularity. Even the confirmed pool sharks are joining the fans which so highly applaud the famous crooning lad.

Reading Notes From the Red Coats

Preparations for receiving Alpha Sigma Alpha's national alumna organizer, Mrs. Kreek, are underway. The program is as follows: Friday evening—business meeting and its trimmings; Saturday noon—luncheon for Mrs. Kreek in the Union's Lakeview room; Saturday afternoon—personal conferences . . . be ready, officers!

Saturday evening—Miss Bonnie Magill will honor Mrs. Kreek with a dinner. Mrs. Kreek later will be the guest of Mrs. Charles Bell at the alumnae meeting; Sunday morning—all will go to church in a group. Sunday noon—a dinner at the Union which will conclude Mrs. Kreek's visit.

Janet McClard's chocolates were really appreciated the other evening . . . but so are they all . . . Annie Lou Cowan and Phyllis Riegel.

Special . . . dance yesterday for Bettebelle Pitts in the Union . . . Bettebelle's campaign managers are two Sig Taus . . . Frank Russell and Weldon Dowden . . .

Virdean Dorman was chosen for the A. S. A. Frost Fidelity Award, which deals with intangible fraternity values as the name fidelity implies. It was given in recognition of sorority loyalty and service.

Annie Lou Cowan was chosen for the Elizabeth Bird Small Award, which is the highest national honor attainable by a college member. The award is based on leadership, personality, and scholarship.

Sigma Sigmas

Officers for the coming year were elected at the regular meeting of Sigma Sigma Sigma. The new officers will be Bonnie Henderson, president; Martha Newman, vice-president; Lynelle Hankins, recording secretary; Joan Meek corresponding secretary; Avis Murrell, treasurer; and Jane Dyer, keeper of the grades.

Martha Newman, general chairman of the spring formal committee, gave a report on the decorations for the dance which will be held in the Union.

Formal initiation for the pledges was held Saturday morning, February 20, beginning at 5:30 a.m. Sunday morning, the group attended the Methodist Church and then had a banquet in the Lakeview room of the Union. Each pledge was presented with a corsage by her sorority mother.

Delta Sigmas

Alpha Phi chapter of the Delta Sigma Epsilon held active initiation for Lauretta Taylor, Norma Gladstone, and Marcia Woodcock, Tuesday evening, February 16, in the chapter room.

Delta Sigs are sponsoring Jean Ann Feurt as candidate for Tower Queen. Georgia Harmes is her campaign manager.

New sorority officers for 1954-55 will be Norma Gladstone, president; Barbara Taylor, vice-president; Patty Neff, corresponding secretary; Marcia Woodcock, recording secretary; Rosalie Grace, treasurer; Evelyn Finter, sergeant and Lauretta Taylor, editor. The officers are now taking over their new duties.

Home Managers Serve Coffee To Faculty Group After Victory

Phi Sig Review

Phi Sigma Epsilon held a smoker last week in the chapter room. Prospective pledges found entertainment in card games, humorous jokes related by Al Spies and Ed Bush, and a song fest.

Ed Bush welcomed the rushees, Bob Roberts gave a report on pledgeship, John Barrett reported on the social functions of a fraternity, and President Al Spies gave an account of fraternity costs and what the fraternity stands for.

Phi Sig newsletter containing a full account of the fraternity's activities has been sent out. Thanks to Max Pierce and Bob Stevenson for the fine job in arranging information for the letter.

Eddie Reese, a Phi Sig alumnus, passed away in the fall as a result of injuries suffered when his plane crashed during World War II. His wife is now planning to attend college here. The group is going to paint and clean up an apartment in Vet Village to welcome her.

Approximately fifty faculty members of the College were entertained at an "after-the-game" coffee hour, Monday evening, February 15, at the Home Management house.

Miss Louise Johnson, supervising teacher of home economics at Horace Mann high school as well as manager of the Home Management house, and the second semester seniors living at the Home served as hostesses.

They were Sue Hood, Breckenridge; Irene Schmitz and Lucille Steinhauser, Parnell; and Marilyn Gilliland, Ludlow. Joan Kowitz, senior, Savannah, Ill at the time, also lives at the Home.

Junior home economics students assisted in replenishing and serving the table. They were Charlotte Huntsman, Maitland; Marca Dick, Maryville; and Patricia Cooper, Sheridan. Pastry delicacies and coffee were served.

Schedule for Varsity Spring Sports Heavy

Track, Tennis And Golf Teams to See Plenty of Action

An active and interesting spring sports schedule has been announced by Dr. H. D. Peterson for NWMSC. The Bearcat track, tennis and golf squads will face collegian opposition from Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri.

Coach Peterson's tennis team faces Wesleyan, Tarkio, Jewell and St. Benedict's. They play all their matches at home with the exception of a trip to Atchison.

The golf team faces the same schedule as the tennis squad.

At the conclusion of the dual meet season the Bearcat athletes will travel to Warrensburg for the MIAA State Meet scheduled for the weekend of May 7th and 8th.

Intramural Sidelights

Ronald Wray of the Northerners and Max Dougherty of the Gophers finished in a tie for first in the recently completed Intramural Free Throw Championships.

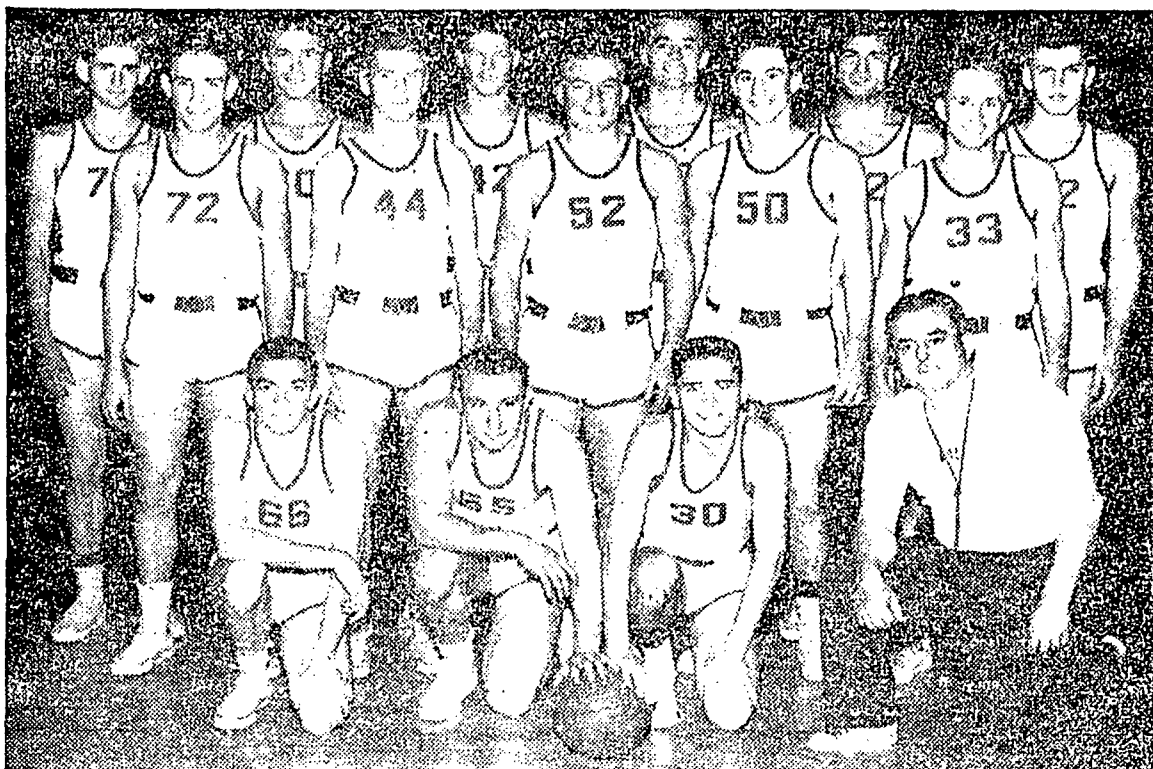

Both boys hit on 20 out of 25 attempts.

Wray led his team to first place in the team competition as he along with Jamie Neeley, Doyle Hendrickson and Roger Cooke combined to make 71 out of 100.

The All States Athletic Club with Bill Norton hitting 19 took second place and the Westerners took third.

Intramural action now swings toward competition in singles and doubles in Badminton.

Bearcat Varsity Wins $\frac{8}{12}$ Loses $\frac{12}{12}$

Above are the 1953-54 Bearcats who completed their season on a loving note by dropping games to Cape and Rolla on the road last week-end. The losses fixed the Bearcat season record at 8-12.

"B" Squad Wins 9; Loses 1

Bearcats Close Season—Win One; Lose Final Two

Maryville 94; Rolla 101

Maryville's Bearcats finished the season on a sad note at Rolla February 20, as they dropped a 101-94 decision to the Miners.

Maryville 62; Cape Girardeau 65. A late Maryville rally fell three points short as the Cats dropped a 62-65 decision to Cape Girardeau at the Cape February 19.

The winners led at the halfway mark 34-26 and at the end of the third period 50-45.

Daryl Flint topped both teams in scoring with 24 points. Ted Henderson was high for the winners with 18 tallies.

Maryville 62; St. Benedict's 57.

Avenging an early season 65-50 defeat the Bearcats closed out their home season by hustling to a 62-57 upset victory over power packed St. Benedict's.

The local collegians, playing their final home contest, took an early lead and were never headed.

Daryl Flint with 18 points and a fine rebounding performance topped the locals in scoring. He was backed up by Lex Creamer's 15 tallies and some all around hustling play by the entire Bearcat squad.
